Incident Summary (Detail the facts of the case; summarize what occurred)

On Saturday, March 7, 2015, the undersigned along with Det. Velez of the Crime Scene Unit were requested to respond to Bridge St and Nassau St in the confines of the 84 Precinct to assist with a Department Investigation. Preliminary investigation reveals that Auxiliary P.O. Marshall, employed as security guard at Marachi Bar, did observe two intox perps at bar, one of which, possibly had a firearm in his pants. APO did notify 77 Precinct personnel of situation. Upon patrol arrival, officers did approach both perps (James Benbow and Eric Bradley) in which perp, James Benbow, did flee. As perp was fleeing, P.O.'s Feeley, Rosiello and Anderson were arriving at scene and confronted perp in which officers then fired at perp possibly four times. Perp was removed to Kings County Hosp and is not likely at this time. Perp Eric Bradley was apprehended, no injuries. A Star Interarms 45 caliber semi automatic pistol was recovered at scene with one cartridge in chamber and three cartridges in magazine. P.O. Feeley possibly fired three times and P.O.
